2 To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours: 3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. - 1 Corinthians 1:2-3

To the church of God in . . .

Paul wrote to a group of people he called sanctified and were called to be holy. Yet he spent the entirety of two long letters to the church dealing with the imperfection of people. As we read these two letters we will encounter Paul addressing problems and issues which sound all too familiar. He will address problems that we deal with daily in our personal life. He will address problems the church faces on a constant basis. Some things have not changed in almost two thousand years. Paul will give valuable insight into our person life as well as the dynamics of the church in the community.

Our reading through these two Corinthian letters will be both informative and challenging. Some material we will embrace, other material we will shy away from. I invite you to live in both and see where God leads you.

We will read one chapter a day. You will discover familiar verses, favorite verses, a chapter on love, and treasures in jars of clay. Dive deep into the riches of this complex church.

As is the practice, the devotions I write each day and email will come from the chapter we are reading that particular day. If you are not currently receiving the devotion via email and want to, simply email me at abeasley@jasperfirstumc.com and I will add you to the list.

Blessings as we read and study together.
